

ASTROBOY

ASTROBOY is a three piece NeoGrunge-Pop-Band from Berlin/Germany. Their biggest influences are every other music, friendship, freedom, struggle, highs and downers and disturbing TV advertisements from back then, in the nineties.

Aaron(guit/voc), Dominik(bass) and Martin(drums) mix epic riffloops with soothing melodies & punkrockethics with pop. They claim to be minimalistic but strong - and sometimes brute – in impression.

The trio is a wild animal, going for the feeling rather than overthinking.

Broken down: it's a very high energy punk rock kicking pop in the mud - and sure they leave that special smell... ASTROBOY
